

Workshops & Trainings:

Top 10 Tips for Minimizing Risks on Sustainable Construction Projects and New Green Codes and Regulations – Will they be Mandatory?

&

Credential Maintenance Overview. You Have Questions. Get the Answers Straight from Green Building Certification Institute.

KENTUCKY CHAPTER
Greening the Bluegrass

March 3, 2011

Register for Top 10 Tips to Minimize Risk & CMP Overview:

9:00 am – Noon

USGBC Member: \$35.00

Non-USGBC Member: \$45.00

Not sure if you are a member?

Click Here to Join Now!

Top 10 Tips for Minimizing Risks on Sustainable Construction Projects and New Green Codes and Regulations – Will They Be Mandatory?

9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Credits:

GBCI CE Credits: 1.5

AIA CEU's (HSW/SD) 1.5

Presenter: Matthew J. DeVries, LEED AP, member of the Construction and Sustainability and Emerging Technology Service Groups at Stites & Harbison will discuss potential risks associated with sustainable design and construction and ways to minimize those risks and examine state and federal mandates for sustainable design in both the public and private sectors.

Credential Maintenance Overview: You Have Questions. Get the Answers Straight from Green Building Certification Institute.

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Presenter: Arnold Kee, Continuing Education Manager for Green Building Certificate Institute (GBCI) will provide an overview of the CMP program straight "from the source" and answer your questions directly.

Venue:

The Galt House

Click Here for Directions.